THE 1971 SHIELD

DETROIT BIBLE COLLEGE
17370 Meyers Road
Detroit, Michigan 48235

1971 DEDICATION

Dr. Patterson's ministry not only aids the Detroit Bible College, but he also serves on the Board of Regents at the Dallas Theological Seminary. Dr. John Walvoord is the president of DTS.

The 1971 Shield is dedicated to a man who has given much of himself to others for many years. In his company, in his community, in his church, and especially in our College he has been faithful in his stewardship of the responsibilities which God has given him. He has been an effective, diligent, and resourceful member and chairman of DBC's Board of Directors. We are grateful to God for the service of

DR. M. C. PATTERSON

Dr. Patterson makes sure Dr. Johnston stays in line.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Front Row: Mr. Harvey Young, Dr. M. C. Patterson, Mr. John McDougall, Mr. R. W. Bergner, Mr. Charles F. Shumway.

The Board of Directors of the College is charged with the overall management of the affairs of DBC. This group of leading laymen and pastors meet monthly to conduct the business and to pray for the ministry of the College. These men bring a variety of interests and experiences to their responsibility as Board members. Some are serving their first term on the Board; others have served for over twenty-five years.

The present Board is composed of twenty-two active members and nine advisory members, under the chairmanship of Dr. M. C. Patterson. The Board lost one active member this year when Dr. E. L. Bringard retired from his medical practice and moved out of the Detroit area. Mr. Thomas E. O'Hara, a local businessman, was welcomed as a newly elected member of the Board. Mr. Ronald Grant continues to serve as the Alumni representative on the Board of Directors.

Dr. Patterson honors Dr. Elmer Bringard for his many years of faithful service and loyalty to the school.

Mr. Young shows enthusiasm at the Alumni banquet.

ADMINISTRATION

Dr. William A. BeVier continues to be one of the busiest men on campus. He holds the positions of Executive Vice President and Dean of Education, as well as Professor of Missions. Dr. BeVier has earned the A.B., M.A., Th. M., and Th. D. degrees.

In his third year as President of D.B.C., Dr. Wendell G. Johnston provides encouragement and enthusiasm for the student body. He is known not only as a faculty member and advisor, but as a friend to each student. Dr. Johnston holds the A.B., Th. M., and Th. D. degrees.

LECTURE SERIES

Other Jewish missions display helpful material.

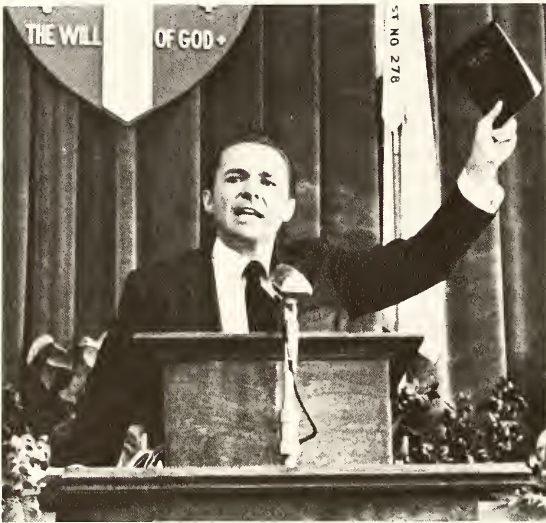

Dr. Emil Gruen was the guest lecturer this fall at DBC. He spoke to us concerning the role of the children of Israel in God's plan for the future. Dr. Gruen also gave us helpful hints as to leading these people to Jesus Christ as Saviour.

FALL SPIRITUAL LIFE CONFERENCE

Bob Carpenter sings "Fill My Cup."

Mrs. Van Impe sings her testimony.

Dr. Jack Van Impe, a 1951 graduate of D.B.C., was the guest speaker at the fall Spiritual Life Conference. Through his personal testimony, musical ability and humorous anecdotes, he stimulated a great deal of thought in the area of Christian separation. Data on the beat in music and regression in quality of movies motivated many to rethink their positions. Open question-and-answer periods provided an excellent opportunity for inter-action with Dr. Van Impe.

Dr. Van Impe plays his accordion.

SPRING SPIRITUAL LIFE CONFERENCE

Dr. S. Lewis Johnson discussed the problems of living the spiritual life.

At the Spring Spiritual Life Conference, Dr. S. Lewis Johnson, Jr., shared key concepts out of the Gospels for the walk of the Christian. He stressed looking unto Jesus for a life of worship and service. After the conference it was evident that the messages had spoken definitely to many of the students.

Dr. Johnson met with local pastors for discussions on problems in expository preaching.

Many of DBC's faithful supporters enjoyed an excellent meal as well as fine service at this year's banquet.

STEWARDSHIP BANQUET

One of the social highlights for the friends of the College is the annual Stewardship Cabinet Banquet conducted on the campus. The Cabinet is composed of individuals who faithfully contribute to the students' education by prayer and finances. This annual dinner is a way in which the College expresses its appreciation for the support given by the Cabinet members.

An Oriental theme was featured this year both in the menu and decorations. Students serving as waitresses and waiters attired in authentic Japanese dress added to the atmosphere of the occasion.

The program included students and alumni relating what the College has meant to them, special music, and a Bible message by Mr. E. L. Jarman, development consultant of Glen Ellyn, Illinois.

Peggy Moffitt and Donna Forsythe go over last minute preparations for serving at the banquet.

EVENING SCHOOL

JoAnn Morgan, a full-time student at Wayne, is seen in the cafeteria studying here for Evening School class.

Evening School classes provide essential information for Christian workers in the church.

Evening School is an adult education program designed to aid in the study of the Word and to prepare men and women for more effective service in the church. Students may choose to earn the Christian Worker Certificate which can be earned in three years or the Advanced Certificate of the Evangelical Teacher Training Association in one year.

Evening School people are encouraged to take an active part in school activities and in evening chapel services.

Evening College is a wonderful opportunity to earn college credits while working full time. It is possible to earn the Th.B., B. Mus., or the B.R.E. degree in six to eight years.

Evening students have the opportunity to share in Day College activities such as the Day of Prayer and the Spiritual Life Conference. Regular chapel services unite believers together in the common bond we have as Christians--Jesus Christ.

Dr. Holloman stresses a point in his evening Homiletics class.

EVENING COLLEGE

Evening chapel unites believers together with song and with a speaker bringing a message from God's Word.

"He who hath a clear and lively imagination in his mind, may easily produce and utter the same." Montaigne

And all things, whatever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive. Matthew 21:22

EXPRESSING

GOVERNING COUNCIL

Why go to college? Why choose a Bible college? Why specifically Detroit Bible College?

These are questions not unfamiliar to many a freshman midway through his first semester; some seniors midway through their last semester are still searching. Many find no satisfying answer to the first question after starting, and leave: some to return later to a college, some never to return.

But for those who stay in college, the second question still remains. And for several, no satisfying answer is found and they, too, leave: a few to go to a secular campus, a few never to return to school at all.

And yet, some stay. For these is left the third question. Why, indeed, specifically Detroit Bible College? Here again, we find those who don't find a satisfying answer and eventually leave. But again, some do stay.

For many of these, convenience of location is critical. For others, a family background in the same institution is strategic. For still others, perhaps coincident with some of the preceding reasons is also an abiding sense of a deep conviction that "God wants me at DBC." Of such is the mainstream of the DBC student body: an individual who feels the real need of broad academic preparation beyond high school to cope with the complexities of his society; an individual who wants that academic preparation based on, centered around, and permeated by the Word of God; and an individual convinced that God has raised up this institution in this community specifically to provide that Christ-centered academic preparation that he seeks.

God has not changed. He is the same God who led Abraham's servant to Rebecca for Isaac, the same God who led Paul to Macedonia through a dream, and is indeed "the same yesterday, today, and forever" (Heb. 13:8). This being the case, where are to be found, in order, the answers to the three opening questions? WHO has them?

Yours in Jesus Christ,
Gerald D. Soderberg
President
DBC Student Association

THE CHORALE

Packs for Christ...

Sleeps for Christ...

Eats for Christ...

Travels for Christ -- Driver, Mike Kornak.

The common goal of each chorale member this year was to minister to churches and to each other through the talent the Lord has given us. Besides singing on Sunday nights in local churches and at special school functions, we went on two tours of the mid-western states. By working together in one ministry and being together constantly for ten days, we sensed real unity and fellowship in Christ. We were proud to have Mr. "A" (Anderson) as our director, and his wife as our piano and organ accompanist.

Practices for Christ...

Prepares for Christ...

Working on the SHIELD staff is both a challenge and an opportunity. It is a challenge to produce a yearbook which adequately portrays all the events of the active school year. It is also an opportunity to utilize creativity and ingenuity. Staff members due to the nature of their duties are able to be more familiar with D.B.C. They encounter many frustrations and trials, but the ultimate reward is great. Those who have worked on the SHIELD staff emerge as richer and fuller individuals.

CAMPUS CRUSADE

John Kahkola stops to give his testimony to a Wayne State student in hopes that he will accept Christ.

Kathy Bradley and Bob Snow share Christ with international students in the Hilberry Lounge.

Campus Crusade is a great opportunity for a Bible college student to talk to his peers on a secular campus. We who go to Wayne State University every week are tested in our beliefs and are sometimes forced to defend our faith in the Bible and God to a skeptical student. With over 40,000 students at Wayne, our field of service is unlimited.

There are several methods of evangelism which we use at Wayne. The first method is a religious survey, directed to college students, which leads into an opportunity for the presentation of the gospel. The second is one of passing out tracts to the majority of students who are contacted during the day and also talking to those who seem interested in the message of the tract. The third is called friendship evangelism. This method works very well with the foreign students where you make friends with the person and during the process of making friends you have virtually an unlimited opportunity to witness, especially in your own life and actions, which they will watch carefully. In this case your actions will speak louder than your words.

"What now Dr. Shaw?"

The Archaeological Association was organized this year for the purpose of learning the methods of excavating and to contribute some useful data to the field of archaeology. Dr. Charles H. Shaw, an archaeologist with many years of experience in the Holy Land, is the leader of the Association and overseer of the excavation. The Association began excavating in September in search for the remains of Fort Sinclair, a British fort built in 1763, in St. Clair, Michigan. The fort was in existence for about twenty-five years and it was the summer home for Lieutenant Patrick Sinclair, who was in charge of British shipping on the Great Lakes. Jean Baptiste de Sable, the founder of present day Chicago, was also at Fort Sinclair for a long period before he went west. The goal is that all artifacts will be given to the City of St. Clair upon completion of the study and future plans of rebuilding the fort.

DETROIT CITY RESCUE MISSION

Three and a half years ago, a man had a vision of seeing inner-city boys and girls coming to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ through Child Evangelism at the Detroit City Rescue Mission. In the three and a half years since, thousands have accepted Christ as their own personal Saviour. Originally Child Evangelism met once a week with approximately five students from DBC helping in the programs. Last year with over ten active DBC students, they saw over fifty first time decisions for Christ in just one week. God has greatly blessed and used this ministry as an outreach to the boys and girls in the inner city. The greatest proof of His working is the love for them which He has given to those who have worked with them.

The girl pictured above not only accepted Christ as her own personal Saviour at Child Evangelism but later led two of her friends to accept Him as well. She also directed another one of her friends to one of the DBC students to accept Christ.

Diane Wisner teaches a new Christmas song to the boys and girls.

Linda Miller helps collect the hymn books and Bibles before Bible Club begins.

John Boney discusses WMF with the student body.

The purpose of the World Mission Fellowship is to influence Detroit Bible College students in the area of missions. WMF attempted to meet this challenge by promoting interest and raising financial support for the Urbana Missionary Conference in Urbana, Illinois. Finances were raised by projects such as a car wash, bake sale, candied-apple sale, and donations. The highlight was the Urbana Work Day in Archbold, Ohio, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lantz. Ten students spent an enjoyable weekend cleaning houses and garages, raking leaves, stringing Christmas lights, washing windows, addressing Christmas cards, waxing floors, moving cabinets, fellowshiping, and eating the fine food prepared by Mrs. Lantz. The working and leading of the Lord can be seen from the exciting fact that these ten students raised $265 from the generous-hearted people of Archbold. WMF also used these projects to raise funds for the support of DBC students who were engaged in Summer Missionary Work around the state.

Missionary Conference

WHO CARES?

THE LORD IS NOT WILLING THAT ANY SHOULD PERISH

Rev. Fred Renich, General Director of Missionary Internship and Rev. Frank Allen, Far Eastern Gospel Crusade, were the main speakers at DBC's 23rd Missionary Conference. Students were challenged to meet the needs of those whom God has placed in their hands, regardless of the immensity of the task. God never pushes the "panic-button," so neither should we.

... THE LORD IS NOT WILLING THAT ANY SHOULD PERISH

Virginia Knight presents a small bouquet to Mrs. M. C. Patterson, wife of DBC's Board chairman.

Pam Schoff pins a corsage on Mrs. Carpenter.

The Women's Fellowship of DBC is a good opportunity for getting to know one another. Probably their biggest activity of the school year is Ladies' Day. Each student is urged to invite his favorite lady to spend the afternoon in fellowship with other wives and mothers.

The ladies enjoyed a talk in the chapel as part of the day's activities.

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

Individual consultation with representatives of hundreds of mission organizations makes the Urbana Conference worthwhile for many students.

FINAL RECORD: Won - 12 Lost - 13

Glen Gray, the national rebounding leader of our association (N.C.C.A.), eyes up another point for DBC!

Willie Myles takes another rebound for the Lancers!

DBC had one of its best seasons this past year. Under the able direction of Coach Dan Wielhouwer, the team set a new scoring record. Our offensive power gave the opponents fits. Functioning as a unit, the team was able to "put it all together," to give the fans an exciting time.

The name of the game!

Finally the faculty tried to beat the students with their seventh string!
Students - 55
Faculty, Staff - 26

Linda Haworth served this past year as captain of the cheer-leading squad. Her leadership gave the team a professional look.

Denise Parks is crowned queen by Mrs. Ruth Martin, last year's queen.

HOMECOMING ACTION

Senior enthusiasm paced the evening.

Who could forget the skits? Zane?

But the Juniors were not far behind.

CHEERLEADERS

"...so FIGHT, FIGHT, FIGHT!!" yells the crowd as the enthusiastic cheerleaders lead them in cheering the team on to a thrilling victory. The cheerleaders spend much time each week practicing for the upcoming games. Their cheers and smiles help unite the fans behind their team. Their activities do not end when the final bell rings, either. An arousing pep assembly to encourage school spirit and game attendance, and constant "Going-to-the-game" remarks made their presence and purpose unforgettable. Bright, new blue, white, and gold uniforms have improved the cheerleaders' appearance this year.

There was a slight change in the squad second semester, when Doris Wielhouwer left and Ilah Borton and Kathy Siler joined the group. But each cheerleader, past and present, works toward one goal—to do their best possible for their Lord. As Christian cheerleaders, they have the opportunity to show Christian sportsmanship, and be a testimony to Christ, whether to Christian or non-Christian opponents.

Generators of school spirit!

...makes perfect!

Graduation is the climax of years of intensive study and achievement and the commencement of personal inquiry and intellectual awareness.

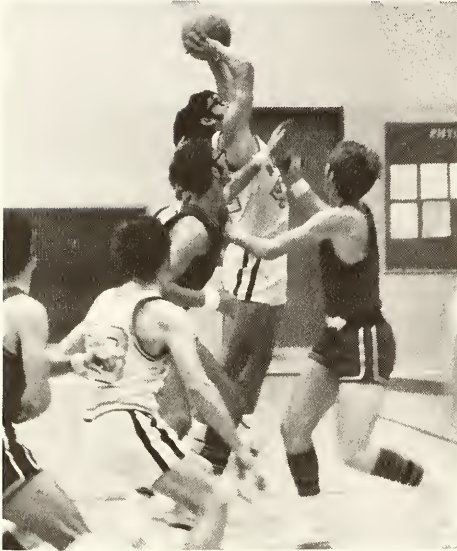

Graduation is the climax of social enrichment and the commencement of continued cultural commitment.

Graduation is the climax of four years of vigorous spiritual confrontation and the commencement of active involvement in God's program.

TEACHER OF THE YEAR

Mr. Cocking ponders Dr. Seuss!

Because we couldn't think of anyone better, the Shield staff decided to give Mr. Herbert Cocking its annual (it will never happen again) Teacher of the Year award. For his unending dedication to the teaching profession and his love for his students, the student body lovingly presents him with this monumental award.

Mr. Cocking is shown here in the library crossreferencing the quotes from Dr. Seuss!

They say, once you get into a Seuss book you can't put it down!

Poem

In nineteen hundred and sixty-four
 Herb Cocking set sail from a distant shore,
 Seeking fame and to gain knowledge
 He found himself in Detroit Bible College,
 A teacher, a teacher he wanted to be
 So off he went for a Masters degree,
 Then back again, back again he came with great glee
 To pin all those nasties on you and on me!

em 1971

Finally, Mr. Cocking expounds his Seuss research to one of his favorite students, Timothy Cocking!

Happy Herb Cocking, congratulations!

STUDENTS OF THE YEAR

DBC students have many demands upon their energies: some hold down part-time or fulltime jobs, some commute great distances, and some spend hours in preparation for Christian service activities. Some, such as Carol Ducat (below), participate in class social skits. Some, such as Ron Ballard (top right) talk with friends in the cafeteria. Some spend time in the library using reference materials.

OBTAINING THE MARK

Dr. Talbot and Dr. Holloman congratulate Dr. Adams (center) on his degree awarded by Conservative Baptist Theological Seminary in Denver.

The 21st Annual Commencement exercises were held at the Highland Park Baptist Church in Southfield. Dr. William Rice, pastor of the Inter-City Baptist Church in Allen Park, was the special speaker. Twenty-three graduates of the Day College, received their degrees. Three Christian Workers Certificates were granted to Evening School graduates.

...Forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead. Philippians 3:13

Therefore let us go on...advancing steadily toward the completeness and perfection that belongs to spiritual maturity... Hebrews 6:1

...So will I watch over them to build and to plant... Jeremiah 31:28

ANTICIPATING

TRUE DEVELOPMENT

Often, when we think of development our thoughts are confined to buildings and land. However, there is another type of development which is perhaps even more important. This is the development of people to help to meet the needs of a lost and dying world. As we look around the Detroit area alone, we also should be "moved with compassion." As we view our training at DBC as a beginning to a life-long ministry and realize our tremendous responsibility to the world around us, we gain our perspective. Remember, DBC is not a group of buildings. We are DBC.

WORD FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Life will take on a new dimension for those of you who are graduating from DBC. For the past four years it has been your privilege to study the Word of God and to prepare yourself to serve the Lord. You have learned many lessons both in and out of the classroom. Now you have the opportunity to put into practice the things you have learned. Your life and the lives of those around you will be affected by your experience. It is my sincere prayer that God will send you forth to accomplish His will in a definite way.

The road ahead will not be an easy one as we are living in difficult days. All around you will see the results of unrest, crime, war, hatred and rebellion. It will be necessary for you to be equipped with the whole armor of God and to be proficient in handling the Word of God.

You should go forth with a spirit of optimism because the promise from Scripture is that God always leads us in triumph in Christ (II Cor. 2:14). As you leave DBC you can expect the prayers and interest of the faculty, staff, and your fellow students to go with you. May the Lord of Hosts protect and guide you in your life for Him.

Sincerely,

Wendell G. Johnston
